BUDDY

WITH

CHILD

You have children and would like to get to know parents with an international background?

Or are you from abroad and would like to meet students with children from Weimar?

We will help you find the right Buddy with child!

The programm is organised by the International Office of the Bauhaus-Universität Weimar and addresses all students with children which are interested in intercultural exchange.

If you just arrived in Weimar and would like to meet fellow students with children, you will get a Welcome-Buddy. As an international student you will get to know the German culture and student life with children together with your Welcome-Buddy. Moreover, you will discover cozy cafés and nice playgrounds and will get the latest insiper tips about Weimar.

Or are you already studying at Bauhaus-Universität for some time and know Weimar pretty well? As a Welcome-Buddy, you will broaden your horizon, improve your language skills and become part of an international community. You will help your Incoming-Buddy to take the first steps in a new culture and together with your children you can start exploring Weimar.

Join us now and find new friends!
Just fill in the registration form and hand it in at the Bauhäuschen. Or send it via e-mail to:
